

A Distinctive Reason

What is the chief reason for the superiority of Royal Baking Powder?

There are several good reasons, but there is one which distinguishes Royal from other baking powders.

This reason, which every woman should know, is that Royal Baking Powder is made from cream of tartar, which comes from grapes. This means a healthful fruit origin. It means natural food as distinguished from mineral substitutes used in other baking powders.

There is no alum nor phosphate in Royal Baking Powder.

OWEN WILL ADDRESS INVESTMENT BANKERS

Head of Santa Fe Says Railroads Need Federal Rather Than State Control.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Oct. 4.—The fifth annual convention of the Investment Bankers' Association of America will close here tonight with a banquet at which the principal speaker will be United States Senator Robert L. Owen of Oklahoma, co-author of the federal reserve bank act.

The program called for two business sessions today, a morning session devoted to reports of bond committees and an afternoon meeting to be addressed by Walker D. Hines, chairman of the executive committee of the Atchafalaya, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad.

Legislation which would provide an orderly and responsible method of settling railway labor disputes as a substitute for the "terrorism of the strike" was urged as the prime need of the public and railroad corporations by Mr. Hines.

Of equal importance, Mr. Hines declared, was legislation whereby state regulations reducing net income through reductions of rates and increase of costs would be superseded by national regulation.

"The public is interested in the railroad companies being able to raise sufficient additional capital to keep the railroad properties abreast of the progressive demands of our rapidly developing business and civilization," said Mr. Hines.

REVELATIONS OF A WIFE

By Adele Garrison

"O! Then you must be his Margaret!"

As the words left Miss Sonnet's lips she gazed at me with a half frightened little air as if she regretted their utterance.

"I beg your pardon, Mrs. Graham," she said contritely. "You must think I have taken leave of my senses. But I have heard so much about you."

"From Mr. Bickett?" My head was whirling. I thought I knew almost every thought of my brother-in-law's, and yet my mother-in-law's nurse had a photograph of him in her scrapbook, and evidently knew him well enough to receive his confidences concerning me.

I had never heard him speak the name "Sonnet." Indeed I would never have known he had met her, save for the accidental opening of her scrapbook to his picture when she and I were searching for chabing dish recipes.

"I had never heard him speak the name 'Sonnet.' Indeed I would never have known he had met her, save for the accidental opening of her scrapbook to his picture when she and I were searching for chabing dish recipes."

PROBLEMS OF THE HEART

By Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson

WE ARE TWO SISTERS, 20 and 21 years of age. We have noticed that you say a girl should not have a steady, but should have several boy friends unless she is engaged to one.

Some people do not think well of girls who have more than one fellow at a time. Why is this?

(2) If a girl has more than one fellow she soon finds she hasn't any and has no chance of going anywhere. Do you think this is right?

(3) The sister of 21 has been going with a boy for two and a half years. He is 31 years old. Do you think him too old for her?

(4) Will you please give me a good lotion for the face. What causes it to become red and irritated? I can use only one kind of powder.

(5) We girls live on the farm and of course are liable to tan easily. Can you suggest something to prevent it—something harmless but good?

(6) Are we too old to wear muddy blouses when a crowd goes picknicking for a day?

BROWN-EYES SISTERS.

(1) The idea that a girl should have only one boy friend is old-fashioned. Such people expect the girl to be in love with each boy she goes with and cannot understand how she can like him merely as a friend. I think the friendship between boys and girls is a good thing.

(2) Your reasoning sounds wrong. If a girl has more than one boy friend she surely has all the more chances of going places. There is no reason why she should lose her friends unless she does something to make them tire of her.

(3) Not now. A girl in her twenties is old enough to go with men considerably older than herself, while a girl in her teens is not.

(4) The skin usually becomes red and irritated because it is dry and chaps easily. Buttermilk is a very good skin food and will remedy the trouble.

(5) Buttermilk is also good as a bleach. If you keep your face well covered with a sun hat when you are out of doors and apply buttermilk once a day you ought not to be troubled with tan.

(6) You are not too old.

Chain of Dairy Restaurant Puts Prices Up Nickel

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—The rising of food prices was impressed on thousands of citizens today by the action of the largest dairy restaurant here in advancing prices. This corporation which owns a chain of lunch rooms in New York and other cities, added 5 cents to the price of all the staple dishes.

Bacon and eggs and ham and eggs now cost 30 cents instead of 25 cents. A small steak is 30 cents instead of 25 cents.

The Famous Kurtzmann TONE.

The beauty and brilliancy of the Kurtzmann tone has contributed largely to the exalted position this piano occupies among its contemporaries. The wonderful volume of harmonic sound that it unfolds places the Kurtzmann in a class apart, quite above others of its price. Its light and responsive action is another quality in which the Kurtzmann excels and the great durability of this fine old instrument shows the high ingenuity of art and workmanship that enters into its construction.

tant, her eyes shining, her face aglow. "How I have wished I were a man ever since this war started! I am just waiting a good chance to join a hospital unit, but I do not happen to know any surgeon who has gone, and of course they all pick their own nurses. But my chance will come. I am sure of it, and then I am going to do my part. Why! my great-grandfather was an officer in Napoleon's army. I feel ashamed not to be over there!"

I opened my lips to tell her something that had just occurred to me, then closed them again. No need to raise false hopes. But I was reasonably sure that the little nurse would have her chance. Dicky's brother-in-law, Dr. Edwin Brantwaite of Detroit, was to sail in a week for France, taking a corps of physicians and nurses with him. I knew that Miss Sonnet was high in the good graces of Dicky's mother, which would insure her name being mentioned to the eminent surgeon, if she wished it. That she was an unusually competent nurse I knew from Dr. Pettit's praise of her. The chances were in favor of her securing the post she coveted.

I rested with me to pull the different wires for the desired result. Did I wish to do so? I did not dare to name even to myself, the reluctance I felt to lift one finger toward the sending of this attractive girl across the seas.

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store. This is all you will need, apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most, if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications with completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. Adv.
